By executing this Subscription Agreement, the Subscriber irrevocably offers to purchase from the Fund that number of Units and fractions thereof determined by dividing the Subscription Price by the applicable Net Asset Value (“NAV”) determined as described below (the “Purchased Units”), subject to the terms and conditions set out herein. The Subscriber acknowledges that the offer is subject to (a) the acceptance of this subscription by the Manager, on behalf of the Fund, (b) the payment of the Subscription Price by the Subscriber, and (c) certain other terms and conditions as set forth herein and in the offering memorandum of the Fund in use as of the date of this Subscription Agreement, as such offering memorandum may be amended from time to time (the “Offering Memorandum”). Upon the Manager’s acceptance of this subscription, this Subscription Agreement will constitute an agreement for the purchase by the Subscriber from the Fund and for the Fund to issue and sell to the Subscriber, the Purchased Units on the terms and conditions set forth herein. The sale and purchase of the Purchased Units is subject to and will occur in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth herein and the receipt of all necessary regulatory approvals.

The Units will be issued under the Offering at a price equal to the NAV per Unit of the Fund determined in accordance with the valuation procedures set out in the Offering Memorandum. Units are offered on a monthly basis by the Fund at the applicable NAV per Unit. The NAV per Unit will be determined as at 1:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) (the “Valuation Calculation Time”) on the last Business Day of the Month (the “Valuation Day”). Business Day means a day when the Toronto Stock Exchange is open for business. Orders for Units received by the Manager at or prior to 1:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) (the “Order Receipt Time”) on the date which is three Business Days prior to the Valuation Day (“Order Receipt Day”) and accepted by the Manager on behalf of the Fund will be issued at the NAV per Unit determined at the Valuation Calculation Time on the next Valuation Day (the “Trade Date”). Subscription orders received after the Order Receipt Time and before or at the next Valuation Calculation Time will be deemed to have been received after such Valuation Calculation Time. This subscription may be accepted in whole or in part by the Manager and the Manager reserves the right to allot to any Subscriber less than the amount of Purchased Units subscribed for. Any decision to accept or reject a subscription received will be made within two business days of the Order Receipt Date. Confirmation of acceptance or rejection of this subscription will be forwarded to the Subscriber promptly after the acceptance or rejection of the subscription. If the subscription is rejected, the Subscriber will be advised and within five Business Days after making the decision to reject the subscription, this Subscription Agreement, any other documentation delivered by the Subscriber to the Manager, and the subscription funds comprising such subscription provided to the Manager, including interest earned thereon, if any, will be returned to the Subscriber (directly or if applicable, through the Subscriber’s dealer, broker or referral agent).

You are buying Exempt Market Securities

They are called exempt market securities because two parts of securities law do not apply to them. If an issuer wants to sell exempt market securities to you:

- the issuer does not have to give you a prospectus (a document that describes the investment in detail and gives you some legal protections), and
- the securities do not have to be sold by an investment dealer registered with a securities regulatory authority.

There are restrictions on your ability to resell exempt market securities. Exempt market securities are more risky than other securities.

You will receive an offering memorandum Read the offering memorandum carefully because it has important information about the issuer and its securities. Keep the offering memorandum because you have rights based on it. Talk to a lawyer for details about these rights.

The securities you are buying are not listed

The securities you are buying are not listed on any stock exchange, and they may never be listed. You may never be able to sell these securities.

The issuer of your securities is a non-reporting issuer

A non-reporting issuer does not have to publish financial information or notify the public of changes in its business. You may not receive ongoing information about this issuer.

For more information on the exempt market, call your local securities regulatory authority.
